Re: Hamborsky

Operative on arriving at New Brunswick, N.J. boarded bus and rode to South River, N.J. and then continued to the foot of Thomas Street to the home of Rev. Nagy.

Operative was told by his wife that he went to New Brunswick, N.J. to Rev. Pape's Church on Plum Street.

Operative returned to New Brunswick and went to Rev. Pape's Hungarian Church on Plum Street and learned from the pastor that he had not seen Rev. Nagy.

Operative made another attempt to see Rev. Nagy but was unsuccessful. Operative returned to New Brunswick and boarded train for New York City.
